First The vacant lot situated between the residence of Mrs Hagy and E. R. Brown's store shall be surveyed and divided into buildings lots twenty six feet wide and deep to an alley which is to be run along the line of Lydia Good's land to intersect with another alley at or near the stable on the property where my son Henry now resides the balance or rear part of said lot cut off by the said alley shall go with the property where my son Henry now resides

Seconds The lot with the building erected thereon where my son Henry now lives including the before mentioned part of said vacant lot together with about fifteen and a half acres of farming lands adjoining lands of Samuel Burkholder Daniel Hershberger and others shall be sold together or divided into parts as deemed best by my Executors.

Thirds The lot of grounds with a double frame dwelling house erected thereon.

Fourth. The lot of ground where my son Franklin now resides shall be sold together or in two parts as deemed best by my executors reserving out of the same the privilege to pass and repass alongside of the Rail Road and across the